AMO HIGH SCHOOL SONG

From the state every Hoosier holds dear,
Comes a name that we all love to hear,
O'er the woodlands, hills and the leas,
Floating so gently upon the breeze.
Thy charms so sweet are always the same
Where ever we hear thy name.
We will sing thy praises loud and long,
Dear Amo, our faith in thee is ever strong.

Oh, dear old Amo, we love thy name.
Throughout the land we'll sing praises of thy fame.
Oh, every loyal heart is thrilled thru and thru,
With the glory of old Amo,
Our dear old Amo Schools.

Let us cling proudly bearing our flag,
To endeavor's high ultimate crag,
Show the world our banner so dear,
Is one that never lags in the rear,
For 'tis borne by the brave and the true,
Already to dare and do,
We will keep it proudly waving high,
Old Amo, our love for thee will never die.

THE HISTORY OF THE SENIORS OF 1945

1941-1942

On the first day of September, 1941, twenty-two Freshmen entered dear ole A. H. S. After a few days the Sophomores initiated us by making the girls dress as "Daisy Mae" and the boys wear long underwear, ladies' hose, high heel shoes, and lots of make-up. We were all glad when the day was over, but they made up by giving us a nice party that night. At first we didn't think we were going to like it as we had to do a lot of stunts, but after we were all initiated we danced and played games and enjoyed the rest of the evening.

Our officers for the year were: President, David Burnett; Vice-President, Dolores Applegate; Secretary, Douglas West; and Treasurer, Carol Cox, with Mr. Floyd as our Sponsor. Blue and gold were our colors and the white carnation our flower. After much discussion our class motto became "Climb, Though the Rocks be Rugged." And for our class name we adopted "Blue Devils."

At Christmas we had the annual gift exchange and pitch-in dinner and attended the show at Plainfield.

In the class tourney we drew the Sophomores and were very proud of ourselves when we beat them. Then we played the Seniors and were beaten. Our yell leaders were Carol Cox and Ann Archer.

In the spring several members of our class represented us in the Choral Festival at Danville.

At the end of the year we lost two classmates, who were Betty Snyder and Doris Fox.

1942-1943

In a short time after the beginning of this new year Mary Larison moved to Danville and Douglas West to San Antonio, Texas. We gained Doyle Waskom from Monrovia, which made twenty-one in our class.

We elected our class officers for the Sophomore year, which were as follows: President, Rolland Rollings; Vice-President, Dolores Applegate; Secretary, Luella Austin, and Treasurer, Russell Hulse. For our class Sponsor we chose one of the new teachers, Miss Patten. Blue and gold were kept for our class colors, and the white carnation for our class flower. After a long discussion we finally decided to change our motto to "Be a Lifter, Not a Leaner," which is considerably shorter and more appropriate.

Carol Cox and Luella Austin tied in being chosen as the prettiest girls in class.

We initiated the Freshmen by making them dress "Military Style" to keep time with the nation. We gave the High School a party in honor of the new Freshmen that night, all going home at a late hour.

At Christmas we had our pitch-in dinner and gift exchange and we were taken to the Prewitt Theater in Plainfield, where we saw "Grandfather Goes to Town." Everybody had a good time and enjoyed the holiday vacation.

Luella Austin was chosen assistant to the F. F. A. Queen, Thelma Phillips, for the Clay Township Farmers' Institute.

Carol Cox, Ann Archer and Luella Austin went to the finals in the Amo Latin Contest of Amo High of the first year Latin class.

In the Class Tourney we drew the Seniors and were beaten, consequently we didn't feel very happy. Our yell leaders again were Carol Cox and Ann Archer.

1943-1944

During the past year we lost five members, who were Bob McClain, Dorothy Gentry, Geraldine Barnett, Jean Broadstreet and Carol Cox, which made our class the smallest in the High School, with only sixteen members.

This year as Juniors, we had the authority at the stand in the Gymnasium to sell pop corn, ice cream, and soft drinks; also we got to sell at the ball games.

The officers for the coming year were elected as follows: President, David Burnett; Vice-President, Dolores Applegate; Secretary, Russell Hulse, and Treasurer, Luella Austin. Again we chose Miss Patten for our class Sponsor.

On October 16, our class gave "Auntie's Money" as our class play. It was enjoyed by everyone—We hope! The characters in the play were: Ann Archer, Luella Austin, Dolores Applegate, David Burnett, Charles Feller, Russell Hulse and Rolland Rollings.

At Christmas time, after having our gift exchange, we were second in line for the annual dinner, but due to the war we couldn't go to Plainfield to see a show.

This year was one to be remembered as our basketball boys won the Sectional tourney and went to the Regionals, but were defeated by Greenfield.

In the class tourney we drew the Sophomores, beat them and defeated the Seniors in the finals.

On May 6, we gave the Seniors a reception at the Riviera Club in Indianapolis. After the banquet, music was furnished by the Riviera Club Band for dancing. Some left early and some left late, but they all arrived home late.

The Seniors gave their farewell party at the close of the year for all the students and faculty and their families. The evening was spent in dancing to Jimmy Brown's Orchestra and playing games.

1944-1945

Fifteen Seniors came back to Amo High to start our final year. Our class was the smallest graduating class of Amo High School.

Our officers for our final year were: President, David Burnett; Vice-President, Gilbert Bryant; Secretary, Dolores Applegate, and Treasurer, Deloris Snyder, and Mr. Bray was chosen as our Sponsor.

On October 3, we journeyed to Indianapolis to Porter's Studio to have our pictures taken for "Memories."

At last! We were first in the parade around the Christmas dinner table. We enjoyed the gift exchange, with everyone receiving nice gifts.

We won the class tourney again this year. Our yell leaders were

Ann Archer and Dolores Applegate. The final game with the Juniors was played at night, with the 7th and 8th playing Stilesville for a send-off.

The Juniors gave the High School a St. Patrick's party on March 16.

On March 29, we presented our class play, "Me and My Shadow." The characters were: Ann Archer, Dolores Applegate, Luella Austin, Deloris Snyder, Lois Storts, Russell Hulse, David Burnett, Vernon Applegate and Eugene Greeson.

The Seniors' farewell party was given on May 4, for the whole High School with Benbow and Vaughan's Band furnishing the music for dancing. Instead of having to play games we entertained the ones who attended, with a picture show.

On April 18, the Juniors gave us a reception at the Riviera Club in Indianapolis.

The Baccalaureate Service was held on the afternoon of May 13. The sermon was delivered by Rev. Herschel Reed.

The Commencement was held on May 18, and the address was given by Merrill B. McFall.

Those attending Clay Township Schools all twelve years were: Dolores Applegate, Gilbert Bryant, Rolland Rollings, Marshall Walton, Ann Archer, Eugene Greeson and Russell Hulse.

Those attending Amo High School during the four years were: Dolores Applegate, Vernon Applegate, Ann Archer, Luella Austin, Harold Bray, Gilbert Bryant, David Burnett, Charles Feller, Eugene Greeson, Rolland Rollings, Deloris Snyder, Lois Storts, Marshall Walton and Russell Hulse.

CLASS WILL

We, the Senior Class of Amo High School, Amo, Indiana, being of sound mind and memory, do on this, the Eighteenth Day of May, of the Year of Nineteen Hundred and Forty-five, through the powers of the laws invested in us, make public and declare, with the intention that it shall not be broken, this our last will and testament, and now leave with cheerful disposition the following legacies, to be accepted with the greatest gratitude and enthusiasm, to our most unfortunate successors.

To the Juniors, we bequeath another sponsor and class officers as good as we had this year.

To the Sophomores, we will our ability to earn money.

To the Freshies, we will our ability to become dignified SENIORS in four short years.

To Mr. Ogle, we will our good attitude and behavior and another Senior Government class as hopeful as the Seniors of '45.

To Mr. Bray, we will another Senior class to guide and sponsor as well as he guided and sponsored us.

To Miss Trittip, we will our best wishes in sponsoring another Senior play and another Junior class to sponsor as well and wisely as she did this year.

To Mr. Mehringer, we will an intelligent and co-operative Physics class, like this year's class.

To Mrs. Thomas, we leave our typewriters and typing books and a school paper staff as efficient as this year's.

To Miss Johnson, we will a Physical Fitness class as obedient as ours.

To Mrs. Lawson, we will our ability to have a Senior English class (after we have graduated.)

To Mr. Malott, we leave as good musicians as those of the Seniors of this year.

To Miss Horton, we will a silent and bashful Advanced Home Ec. class.

Now we will and bequeath our most cherished possessions:—

David Burnett bequeaths his ability to be short to Gib Barry.

Gilbert Bryant wills his ability to play basketball and baseball to Herbert Phillips.

Dolores Applegate wills her typing ability to Junior Wingler.

Deloris Snyder wills her popularity with the boys to Erma Stewart.

Charles Feller wills his ability to drive wrecklessly and stay alive to Paul Crews.

Doyle Waskom wills his ability to be a good student manager to Alden Thornberry.

Luella Austin wills her ability to become a soldier's wife to Jackie Wallace.

Eugene Greeson wills his basketball ability to Roy O'Neal.

Russell Hulse wills his curly hair to Jimmie Rollings, but wants it back.

Vernon Applegate wills his laugh and height to David Waltman.

Harold Bray bequeaths his basketball ability to Richard McDaniel.

Ann Archer wills her ability to get a man—and keep him—to Mona Dillon.

Lois Storts bequeaths her ability always to have a man on her string to Louise Harlan.

Marshall Walton wills his seat in the assembly and all the knowledge therein to James Nicely.

Rolland Rollings wills his manly physique and grin to Ephriam Buis.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, We have hereto subscribed our names and affixed our seal this Eighteenth Day of May, in the Year of Our Lord, One Thousand Nine Hundred and Forty-five.

THE CLASS OF NINETEEN HUNDRED AND FORTY-FIVE.

WITNESSES: ..... (Seal)

..... Sponsor.

..... Principal.

CLASS PROPHECY

In this little narration with the reader, please keep in mind that our story takes place in 1950.

Seated before a large fireplace, feet warming, as the fire casts reminiscent shadows on his face, sits our narrator. The wind whistles a monotonous tune, the fire burns lower, his pipe goes out, his head droops. He sleeps—and dreams.

Wind: Where is the Class of '45?

Nar: Dolores Applegate finally married her sailor. They have a lovely home and the cutest little daughter. She must be about three now.

Wind: How about her cousin Vernon? What's he doing?

Nar: Oh! Slim, yes. He was our center on the basketball team. Well, Slim has a whole fleet of trucks now. Lives comfortably, too.

Wind: Whatever became of Luella, didn't she work at a switchboard?

Nar: Yes, she started there, but now she is a supervisor in one of the largest telephone companies in the United States.

Wind: By and by, didn't Ann and Luella start together?

Nar: Yes, Ann is at the same Company with Luella. She controls all long distance calls.

Wind: Tell me more of the old ball team. Harold, for instance?

Nar: Harold has a farm and home all his own now. He's doing all right.

Wind: Is Gilbert still a grease monkey?

Nar: No sir, Gib wasn't there long 'til he owned the place. His new garage looks like a supermarket. Did a swell job on my car last week.

Wind: Is Charles still an office boy?

Nar: Oh no, Charles is Vice-President of that firm now. To prove he's in the money, the first thing he got was a big Olds. You know he always wanted one.

Wind: Is Eugene still working on a farm? He won lots of ball games for A. H. S.

Nar: Working nothing, he owns two big farms now. He can afford to loaf a little.

Wind: Where has Russell been lately?

Nar: Russ is out West somewhere; has a series of Dude Ranches all the way from Colorado to Mexico. Draws a wealthy crowd, I guess.

Wind: Where's our boogie-woogie man, Rolland?

Nar: Well, he left school to take a radio course in Chicago, and he stayed there. Still plays a hot piano. He and Ann are engaged.

Wind: I'll bet Marshall and Doyle are farming?

Nar: Right, they each have a swell farm, pretty close together. Marshall is married, but Doyle is bashful.

Wind: Didn't Dave and Rolland take the same course in Chicago?

Nar: Well, they did, but Dave is in the East now with a big radio station.

Wind: Didn't Lois become a secretary?

Nar: Not for long. You see, she married her boss, and became a housewife. Deloris Snyder is also a wife and mother now. Swell family.

Wind: It grows colder, your fire is out, and the sun has risen. Awaken—
Dreamer—Awaken.

—Russell Hulse.

SENIOR POEM

From Freshies to Seniors in four short years,
Thru eight semesters of hopes and fears.
Now each into the wide world must pass,
Each in a way, sorry to leave A. H. S.

Vernon is known to be "Slim" and tall
He feels better in overalls.
Dave is short and full of pep,
In basketball he's right in step.

On Gib you can depend,
As a good and faithful friend.
Lois doesn't have much to say,
As she goes about in her quiet way.

Maybe Rolland, if he had his way,
Would come to Amo every day.
Of our class Ann is one,
Known and liked by everyone.

Eugene Greeson, a lad so true,
In the ball games, always comes thru.
Dolores Applegate, a pretty lass,
Stops all the boys as they go past.

To sail the sea in uniform grand,
Marshall Walton is the man.
Charles Feller, a business man is he,
At this work, successful he will be.

Deloris Snyder, a rural lass,
Is very outstanding in our class.
A quiet student, as you can see,
Luella, a tidy wife would be.

Harold combs his hair in every class,
This to help him capture a lass.
As student manager, Doyle was on the beam,
But soon he will join Uncle Sam's team.

And as this class disperses in '45,
Long may our class spirit remain alive.
Our genius, our ignorance, our goods and bads,
We leave such as this to next year's grads.

—Russell Hulse

OUR SENIOR PLAY

"ME AND MY SHADOW"

Cast of Characters

Roy Harrington—a young attorney ..... Russell Hulse
 Arleen Harrington—his wife ..... Luella Austin
 Mrs. King—his mother-in-law ..... Dolores Applegate
 Susan Fisher—the Harrington maid ..... Deloris Snyder
 Bruce Douglas—a young Doctor ..... David Burnett
 Georgia Butler—an inquisitive neighbor ..... Lois Storts
 "Shadow"—a mysterious Hindu girl ..... Ann Archer
 Hickson—a county sheriff ..... Eugene Greeson
 Sabu—an East Indian mystic ..... Vernon Applegate

STORY OF THE PLAY

Roy Harrington is a young attorney, whose mother-in-law, Mrs. King, has never approved of his marriage to her daughter, Arleen. Arleen is learning First Aid and practices on everybody she meets. She is going to a lecture in a neighboring city and hates to leave her young husband alone, so she induces Roy's friend, Dr. Bruce Douglas, to spend the night with Roy. On his way home from taking Arleen to the station, Roy saves a mysterious young Indian girl from being run over by a train. She is unconscious when Roy brings her home to see what Bruce can do for her. Both boys are amazed when the girl comes to and declares that because Roy has saved her life she now belongs to him, but in spite of their repeated efforts to get rid of her—she stays! Mrs. King arrives unexpectedly, and there is a nosey neighbor whose interference makes things worse. It seems that the girl was deliberately thrown on the tracks. The would-be murderer tries to kidnap her. In the darkness, however, he gets the mother-in-law instead! Then Arleen comes home and things really happen! More complications are caused by Susan, the Harrington maid, and each situation stops another, with such bewildering rapidity that the audience is almost in hysterics by the time the sudden and surprising conclusion is brought by Mrs. King, who is instrumental in the capture of the would-be murderer and kidnaper.

OUR JUNIOR PLAY

"AUNTIE'S MONEY"

Cast of Characters

Mrs. Case—a rich old lady ..... Ann Archer
Veleta Case—Mrs. Case's pretty niece ..... Luella Austin
Berthanna—the housemaid ..... Dolores Applegate
Lance Case—the lazy nephew ..... Russell Hulse
Ruddy Boles—in love with Veleta ..... David Burnett
Dr. Max Bones—talkative quack doctor .... Rolland Rollings
Dr. Bert Stocton—another doctor ..... Charles Feller

STORY OF THE PLAY

"Auntie" is a dear old person, who is deaf and temperamental and about to bestow the lion's share of her $100,000 estate on Lance, her favorite nephew. Because of her deafness, she is unaware of Lance, who is a worthless scoundrel, and who is always planning how he will spend the money he will receive on "Auntie's" death. She showers many kindnesses upon him, letting the point of her vitriolic tongue fall upon her lovely niece. Lance's cousin, Veleta, who, being a gentle woman, will not betray Lance or allow her lawyer fiance, Ruddy Boles, to do so. All would have gone well with him but for the timely arrival of two quack doctors, who, wishing to separate "Auntie" from some of her gold for themselves, agree to cure her deafness. Much to their surprise, and "Auntie's", too, they do heal her deafness by a very peculiar and interesting method. Lance, unaware that "Auntie" has recovered her hearing, talks a bit too much and at long last "Auntie" discovers that she has been lavishing her attention on the wrong person. Ruddy Boles, Veleta's lawyer friend, also has a very important part in the play and his constant work does much to clear up the family feud, even if it is just a wee bit perplexing to the simple minded housemaid, Berthanna.

SENIOR SONG

Sometimes I wonder why I spend those lonely hours,
Studying in school? And when I find I am through,
With the school I knew.
And each day a consternation, but now I want to know:
Why my indignation when with the teachers I was wrong.
Inside a prison wall, where students aren't bright,
And when you graduate, the faculty speak so heavenly,
Of prison walls, where Ivy grew.
Tho I tried to fool all the teachers in our school.
My school day memories, the thought of education's strain.

In listing individual scores, people are apt to give honor and credit, for winning of ball games, to the ones who show high scores. I would like to call attention to the fact that a good defensive man may steal the ball and give it to the man who scored the points. So! Fans, please don't fail to give the defensive man and low scorer his share of the honor.

R. W. Bray, Coach.

Junior: "She told me you told her what I told you not to tell her."

Jack: "Why, the mean thing! I told her not to tell you I told her."

Junior: "Well, I promised her I wouldn't tell you she told me, so don't tell her I did."

Gib Bryant: "What size shoes are you wearing?"

Miss Horton: "Size twelve, I think."

Gib Bryant: "Did you get a whistle with them?"

Miss Horton: "No, why?"

Gib Bryant: "Wow! Such big boats, and no whistle."
